Rhetorical Analysis: Act I Scene 2: Cassius' Speech

In his speech to Brutus, Cassius _____s (verb) that _____

_____ . (What is Cassius' claim?)

Cassius appeals to Brutus' _____ (choose one appeal: emotions, logic or ethics) when he

_____s (verb) "_____ ," (embed/cite quote) .

Basically, Cassius _____ (summarize the quote)

in order to _____ . (What is his purpose?)

Cassius also appeals to Brutus' _____ (choose a second: emotions, logic or ethics) when he

_____s (verb) "_____ ," (embed/cite quote) .

In other words, Cassius _____ (summarize the quote)

so that _____ . (What is his purpose?)

This evidence suggests that _____

_____ . (Analyze the evidence and discuss its significance to his original claim)

Rhetorical Analysis: Act I Scene 2: Cassius' Speech

In his speech to Brutus, Cassius _____s (verb) that _____

_____ . (What is Cassius' claim?)

Cassius appeals to Brutus' _____ (choose one appeal: emotions, logic or ethics) when he

_____s (verb) "_____ ," (embed/cite quote) .

Basically, Cassius _____ (summarize the quote)

in order to _____ . (What is his purpose?)

Cassius also appeals to Brutus' _____ (choose a second: emotions, logic or ethics) when he

_____s (verb) "_____ ," (embed/cite quote) .

In other words, Cassius _____ (summarize the quote)

so that _____ . (What is his purpose?)

This evidence suggests that _____

_____ . (Analyze the evidence and discuss its significance to his original claim)